Leaders 'left in the dark' over Gateway plans

A DIDCOT leader has said councillors and residents are being 'left in the dark' over delayed £60 million plans to redevelop land around Didcot Parkway station.

Plans for a major revamp of the area, labelled Didcot Gateway, include building 300 homes, (SODC) to their own officers, as the decision-makers on planning matters.

But with a target decision date of October 16 having passed, residents and councillors are appealing for information on what is happening.

Oxfordshire county councillor for Didcot West, Nick Hards, said: "We are in the dark about this application. The county council is very concerned about the level of congestion that could envelop the town as a result."

tremendously exciting for us as we've been working on this project for 10 years.

"It's a massive deal for the people of Oxford, as it will provide a huge boost to transport between the city and London.

The station has six members of staff, 1,500 car parking spaces, 150 bike parking spaces, and a café run by Little Italy Espresso Bar in the station building.

Mr Brighouse added: 'Accessibility is a big factor for us and people can drive their cars straight to the station here, which we hope will help alleviate traffic congestion on the A34.'

Monday also saw the launch of the new upgraded station in Bicester, named Bicester Village station, which runs directly along the route towards Oxford Parkway.

Prime Minister David Cameron gave a speech as he officially opened the station on Monday afternoon.

He said: "This new line and two new stations mark a historic moment for Oxfordshire. From today there will be more trains, faster journey times and better transport links for people living and working there."

Ken Hand, 72, from Kidlington, has followed the project from the beginning and said: "I came down to see the very first train leave for the station for London as I see it as a pretty momentous moment."

"It will be great for Kidlington to have a station so close and it will be also be a huge benefit to the residents of North Oxford.

"I think it will be very busy and people will be surprised by how popular the station will get."

Matthew Clarke, 50, of Boars Hill, who travels into London frequently during the week, said: "I think it's a good idea to have a station here as it's a very convenient location for commuters. I usually get the train to London at Didcot but I thought I'd come try it out for myself.

"I do think it's a bit of an ugly station myself, but it is functional to a certain extent."

Helen Whittow, 53, of central Oxford watched it leave the platform before catching the second train to London herself.

Ms Whittow, who usually gets the train from Oxford Railway station, said: "I'm quite excited to try it out. The trains from Oxford Railway station can run quite late so I'm hoping this station will be a bit more reliable.

"I thought it would be fun to give the train a go on the opening day and I'll maybe use it again in the future due to how heavily congested the centre of town can be in terms of getting to the station."

RAF inquests

OXFORD: Inquests into the deaths of two pilots based at RAF Benson near Wallingford opened on Tuesday.

Flight Lieutenants Alan 'Scotty' Scott, 32, of Baker Avenue, Benson and Geraint 'Roly' Roberts, 44, of Wakefield Row, Mortimer near Reading, died when their helicopter crashed in Afghanistan on October 11.

An inquest was opened and postponed at Oxfordshire Coroner's Court in New Road.

Assistant coroner Nicholas Gardiner said post mortems at Oxford's John Radcliffe Hospital on October 21 revealed Flt Lt Scott died from multiple injuries and Flt Lt Roberts died from a severe blunt head injury.

The repatriation ceremony of the two men was held at RAF Brize Norton air base near Carterton on October 20.

A date for a full inquest has not yet been set as investigations are still under way.

New court date

OXFORD: A Kidlington man found guilty of making almost 25,000 indecent photos of children had his sentencing rescheduled for November 30.

Wai Yin Tse, of Cromwell Way, was also convicted of having seven videos of extreme porn at Oxford Crown Court on September 30.

Tse, 43, was charged with nine counts including making 24,898 indecent photos.

Sentencing was to take place on Tuesday but was postponed as documents were not ready.

Woman stands accused of exaggerating for extra benefits in slavery trial

• The entrance to Redbridge Hollow caravan park

A WOMAN on trial for conspiracy to defraud and holding another person in slavery was accused of exaggerating a disability form for benefits, Oxford Crown Court heard on Tuesday.

Mary Joyce, 59, of Oxford's Redbridge Hollow caravan park, denies overstating 51-year-old Nicholas Iliff's disabilities on a document for his benefits.

Prosecuting, Rachel Drake said: "You've written 'sometimes my hands move uncontrollably by themselves and most times it's hard'.

"I'm suggesting that you exaggerated on this form to make sure Mr Iliff gets his benefits."

To which Joyce responded: "No ma'am I didn't."

Ms Drake said Joyce filled in the form herself but gave it to Mr Iliff to sign while he was in hospital in 2014.

Joyce added: "I understand what you're saying but I'm querying the handwriting."

"I agree that there's forms in here I have filled in. That just doesn't look like my handwriting."

Mary Joyce, her dad Christopher Joyce, 81, sister Helen Collins, 44 and brother Timothy Joyce Senior, 44, all of Redbridge Hollow deny conspiring to hold Mr Iliff in slavery and conspiracy to require Mr Iliff to perform forced labour and conspiracy to defraud.

Timothy Joyce Senior is accused of and denies assault by beating.

The trial continues.

Lord labels Oxfordshire's only UTC career college 'the future'

THE main driving force behind the UK's Universal Technical Colleges (UTCs) visited Oxfordshire's first and only UTC in Didcot last Thursday.

Former education minister Lord Kenneth Baker co-founded the Baker Dearing Educational Trust, which launches and supports UTCs across the county.

Lord Baker spoke to pupils who started at Didcot's £10.4 million UTC Oxfordshire in September and was given a tour of the buildings, including the unfinished half of the college.

Lord Baker said: "What you see here is the future. Here young people will get skills that will get them jobs."

"We should have had these schools 50 years ago. At age 14 this is the start of their working life. It's the start of their careers."

"It's a wonderful building."

Lord Baker, who retired as Conservative MP for Mole Valley in Surrey in 1997, spoke with some of the 140 students.

By Alex Ballinger

The UTC opened to students on September 7 and building work is due to be finished by this Monday, after half-term.

There are 39 UTCs in the UK, the first of which opened in 2010.

UTCs are dubbed 'career colleges' because they focus on vocational and specialist courses, working with local companies to bridge the gap between school and work for 14 to 19-year-olds.

UTC Oxfordshire specialises in engineering and sciences and is working with companies including BMW Mini.

In a joint project students will be designing dashboards for Mini vehicles.

The UTC also has hi-tech cryogenic labs to study the production and behaviour of materials at low temperature.

They will also work with five 3D printers which are to be installed next week.

Student at the school Elliot Harvey, 14, said: "The education here is really good. The teachers are really motivating. The days are longer which is harder to get used to but it's much better than school."

Principal Owain Johns said: "The students have settled in really well and we're all looking forward to the new facilities."

The college will grow to 600 students in the coming years.

Council objects

DIDCOT: Didcot Town Council has objected to plans to build 170 homes between the town and East Hagbourne.

The council's planning committee voted unanimously last Wednesday against the plans.

The move means they can recommend South Oxfordshire District Council (SODC) reject the planning application by developer Grainger PLC, but they do not have the powers to block the plan themselves.

Developers want to build on 1.5 acres east of New Road on the edge of Didcot but in East Hagbourne parish, by the Didcot Community Allotment site.

They submitted the plans to SODC on September 30.

Campaign group Mind the Green Gap, East Hagbourne Parish Council, and Didcot MP Ed Vaizey have also objected.

Mind the Green Gap chairman Andy Barmer said: "These are clear, unequivocal messages and we expect SODC to take heed."

The target decision date has been set as December 30.

Road floods

DIDCOT: Park Road was closed both ways last Thursday due to flooding at Brook Lane and Main Road in the nearby hamlet of Coscote.

No houses were flooded as a result of the water and the road remained closed throughout Thursday into Friday morning.

Eleven firefighters from Didcot and Abingdon fire stations were at the scene.

Extra work on Didcot Gateway plans delay project

He added: "I think it's highly likely we will end up with a revised planning application."

Penny Dakin Kiley, of Lydalls Road and founding member of campaign group Local Voice for Didcot Gateway, added: "We have asked SODC for a timescale on when the development is likely to happen but they won't give us an answer."

The redevelopment would see homes, offices, a hotel, restaurant, gym, and a cafe built on a site opposite the station currently used for station parking, The Prince of Wales pub, now-closed Julians car dealership, Lydalls Nursery School, Didcot Labour Club and Soha Housing company offices.

While a multi-storey car park to serve the homes would be built where Station Flooring shop and the Great Western Railway Staff Association social club stands.

The plans include building a new nursery and Soha offices.

SODC spokesman Natalie Ellis told the Guardian last week the council is working on technical queries brought up by a consultation on the plans.

She said: "Our consultant team is currently producing additional technical information in support of the application, which will take some weeks. "We will need to re-consult on this once it's ready. We expect the planning officer to give us a revised committee date at that stage."

But she could not estimate how long the plans could be delayed for or give detail about what changes could be brought up in a new consultation.

Oxfordshire County Council (OCC) filed a response to the plans on August 28 supporting the redevelopment but raising concerns about traffic and designs for the new nursery, which it says is too small.

OCC called for extra traffic surveys at key junctions in Station Road and two extra bus stops on the south side of the road, opposite Didcot Parkway railway station's bus interchange.

SODC councillor for Didcot South, Margaret Davies, said: "This, alongside their concerns about traffic congestion, could mean that the scheme is completely changed."

"I expect to see a revised planning application, which would be amended with several critical differences and I honestly don't think we'll see it submitted until next year."

Ms Dakin Kiley added: "We would question why so much public money is being wasted in this way. It's been three years since the Didcot Labour Club and adjoining building were sold for this development and we are no closer to seeing the land being redeveloped."

Duo sentenced after police discover cannabis deal bags

A FARINGDON man and woman pleaded guilty at Oxford Crown Court to possession with intent to supply cannabis, after police found 40 deal bags with dog logos on the side at their home.

James Redman, 24, of Catkins Close, was jailed for 15 months last Thursday and Sophie Humphrey, 24, of the same address, was handed a 12-month jail term suspended for two years.

She was also given a 12-month supervision order and ordered to attend a course.

Thames Valley Police officers uncovered a 'large quantity' of cannabis at their home, some of which was packaged in deal bags.

Police have previously found similar bags on children aged under 16 in Faringdon.

Cash totalling around £1,400 was also found at the property, which has been confiscated, along with a list containing names and numbers.

Redman was arrested that same day with Humphrey voluntarily interviewed before they were charged on July 24.

Faringdon Police Station PC Robert Maris said: "Drug dealing has proven to pose a threat of risk and harm to the most vulnerable members of our society."

Daughter's tribute to dad: 'Our hearts have been broken'

A DAUGHTER whose dad and partner died in a car crash near East Hanney paid tribute to the 'dearly missed' couple, after an inquest into their deaths on Tuesday.

The inquest heard Ray Mace and Heather Norton died after couple's red Vauxhall Meriva drifted onto the wrong side of the A338 into an oncoming white Mercedes van on May 5 this year.

Assistant coroner Nicholas Gardiner concluded the crash caused the deaths at Oxfordshire Coroner's Court in New Road.

Mr Mace, 79, from Lockway in Drayton and Ms Norton, 85, from North Way in Steventon, died from multiple injuries at Oxford's John Radcliffe Hospital tal that day.

By Alex Ballinger

Mr Mace's daughter Sarah Dodd said: "Our hearts have been broken by the death of our father Ray Mace and his beloved partner Heather Norton.

"The tragic events leading to their deaths have shocked all who knew him."

She added: "We have taken great comfort in the fact that they were so well thought of and will be dearly missed by not only their families but also by their many friends in their local community."

Mr Mace was a retired boiler stoker engineer and had previously had his lower leg amputated after a car crash in 1959.

He was driving southbound towards Wantage with Ms Norton, a retired civil servant suffering from Alzheimer's disease, in the passenger seat.

In a statement

read out at the inquest, the van driver Mark Elsey said he was going at about the speed limit, which is 50mph.

The statement continued: "I saw the red car travelling towards me on my side of the road.

"I remember seeing this red car in front of me. I started braking. I was able to see a woman in the red car."

Mr Elsey said he could remember getting out the van from the passengers side and someone asking him if he was okay.

He added: "I can't recall anything else about the crash."

Forensic collision investigator Kevin Spiller said there was nothing to suggest Mr Mace was driving over the speed limit.

Mr Gardiner said: "No external reason for the Vauxhall's behaviour could be obtained.

"we could speculate and come up with any thoughts as to what happened in the car.

"It would not be right for me to speculate."

Council votes through plan for storage container pizza restaurant

DIDCOT: Plans for a pop-up stone baked pizza restaurant in a restyled storage container outside the entrance to Didcot's Sainsbury's were approved by South Oxfordshire District Council's planning committee last week.

The pizza restaurant was given planning permission to be installed next to the amphitheatre-style steps in the Orchard Centre.

Developers Hammerson, the same developers planning to build a phase two extension of the Orchard Centre, submitted the planning application.

The plans state the pizza restaurant would move into a new unit when the build is completed.

Didcot Town Council had previously recommended the plans refusal saying it is not in keeping with the street scene.

A PLANNING application for the redevelopment of Seacourt Tower Retail Park in Botley

By Alex Ballinger

were to be considered by Vale of White Horse District Council last night as the Oxfordshire Guardian went to press.

The plans for phase two of the development include building new shops, restaurants and a cafe as well as changes to the parking and were recommended for approval by Vale planning officers.

During the consultation period, 28 letters of objection were submitted to the council as well as an objection from North Hinksey Parish Council. Resident of nearby Hazel Road, Dave Ralphs, said: "[I] object to the loss of a filling station and car wash which could easily be retained on the site.

"Although the current station is pricy compared to others it is used and is the only station within several miles of Botley."

Under the application the BP petrol station would be demolished.

In their objection the parish council said: "The recent changes to the junctions with the two arms of North Hinksey Lane and the slip road to the A34/A420 Cumnor Hill by-pass have made these more difficult and dangerous for pedestrians.

"There is no good cycle access to the Seacourt retail site.

"When the previous applications were approved there was no intention to close the nearest petrol station at the Oxpens.

"This is now certain to happen, so the situation has changed."

The application was submitted to the Vale council on May 6 this year by BAPT Ltd and was set to be considered at a meeting of the council's planning committee at The Beacon in Portway, Wantage at 6.30pm last night.

For an update on last night's decision check oxfordshireguardian.co.uk or see next week's paper.

Oxford Uni study reveals Britons don't like being touched

AN eye-opening study from Oxford University scientists has revealed where people are more comfortable about being touched through a series of body maps.

The study involved Oxford University working with researchers from Finland's Aalto University and saw more than 1,300 men and women from five countries asked to colour in areas of the body where they would allow particular people to touch.

Their answers were then used to create the maps, which show how touchable areas of the body are for particular relationships.

Results revealed that women are uncomfortable being touched by male strangers on most areas of their body whilst men do not want relatives of either gender touching their genitals.

Compared with Russia, France, Italy and Finland, British people are less comfortable with touching, and Finns are most comfortable with touching overall.

Oxford University's Professor Robin Dunbar, said: "It is the relationship rather than familiarity that matters."

Call for residents to vote on whether to hike their own taxes

RESIDENTS should decide whether hiking council tax is the best option to avoid cuts to vital services through an Oxfordshire-wide referendum, a trio of independent councillors has said.

Oxfordshire County Council leader Ian Hudspeth announced last week an extra £50 million could have to be cut from 2016 to 2020, on top of £290m being cut by 2018.

But independent county councillors Lynda Atkins, Mark Gray and Les Sibley banded together to call for a referendum giving residents the choice to combat the cuts by raising their own council taxes by 10 to 15 per cent.

Cllr Atkins, representing Wallingford, told the Guardian on Tuesday: "The impact of these cuts will be so desperately bad so we want people to have a choice, and are therefore asking, would residents be willing to pay a bit more for their council tax if it meant these cuts could be prevented?"

The 10-15 per cent increase would be about an extra 50p a day per household, equating to an extra £182.50 a year.

By Loughlan Campbell

Based on an OCC report estimating the county will have 282,250 households by 2016, the amount of extra cash raised would be over £51m in one year.

Cllr Atkins added: "If we prevent these cuts, it could help us save the children centres and the proposed cuts to transport."

"I stood for election saying that I would improve services, not see them reduced under my tenure."

The county's 44 children's centres and seven early intervention hubs are under threat amid the council cuts as well as 100 bus services across the county.

Cllr Hudspeth said the idea is "definitely an option" to offset the cuts.

He said: "It's definitely an option but it would be a difficult proposition for them to consider as it's related to increasing their council tax."

"If we call a referendum we have to bear in mind that it will cost potentially as much as £800,000 to run it and that money could be taken from services which are already strained."

Cllr Mark Gray added: "We were not elected to allow cuts like this happen, and we think this will give the opportunity for people to say what they really think on the cuts and share their voices."

A county-wide vote on the issue would be needed on the increase as councils are not allowed to raise council tax by more than 2 per cent per year – without holding a referendum.

In May this year Bedfordshire residents voted 'no' on a referendum on whether to up the amount charged by their police and crime commissioner in the UK's first referendum on council tax increase.

A public meeting on the cuts was held on Tuesday at OCC's headquarters, County Hall, in Oxford's New Road.

Another meeting is due to be held in Banbury Town Hall in Bridge Street on Monday from 7pm to 8.30pm.

The last of the three meetings is at Wallingford's Regal Centre next Thursday at the same time.

An OCC consultation on the cuts closes on November 30.

The forklift truck and a green Land Rover Discovery were stolen from farmland in Clare Hill, Pyrton in a related incident.

The forklift truck was crashed into the front of the Swan Antiques Centre and burglars removed the front door.

It is not yet clear what was stolen.

Sexual assault

There is currently no description of the offender available. Call 101 with information.

Concerns voiced after consultation summary

A COUNTY councillor says she is 'disappointed' by Oxfordshire County Council after a consultation report released last week into road improvements in Headington was summarised in just under two pages, despite receiving more than 1,000 public responses.

The council launched a consultation into the £12.5 million Access to Headington Scheme in July and hundreds of residents shared their views online on the council's website.

The scheme involves plans to remove grass verges and could see residents' parking spaces in Windmill Road being replaced by bus and cycle lanes.

The council said another public consultation is pencilled in for next February.

County councillor for Churchill and Lye Valley, Liz Brighouse said: "I was disappointed to see that after the consultation happened, all that was put on the website was just a short summary."

"I think it's hard on the residents as they have put time and effort into sharing their views and it's hard to know if they've really been taken on board."

However, the county council

By Loughlan Campbell

have said that all the comments they received as part of the consultation are being considered as part of an on-going process.

Council spokeswoman, Emily Reed said: "This process involves carrying out additional surveys to help us gather more detailed information about the area.

"The surveys will mean the county council is better informed to consider and respond to all comments received. This work will be taking place over the next few months."

The council said another public consultation is pencilled in for next February.

County councillor for Churchill and Lye Valley, Liz Brighouse said: "I feel this scheme will resolve some issues for traffic in Headington but it needs to be a lot clearer for residents in terms of how their responses are heard."

A decision on the plans is likely to be made in May or June next year and work could start in the Summer.

Quarry plans to be submitted in 2016

A PLANNING application for a gravel pit and concrete processing plant within five miles of Didcot is to be submitted early next year.

Waste disposal company, Swindon-based Hills, want to build the plant east of the railway at Culham and south of the A415, and are set to hold talks with neighbouring parish councils next month ahead of a public exhibition.

Ian Mason, of Bachport,

Hills will hold talks with parish councils in Clifton Hampden, Burcot, Long Wittenham, Appleford and Culham early next month.

Objections have been aired by campaign group Bachport (Burcot & Clifton Hampden for the Protection of the River Thames) backed by parish councils and has nearly 700 registered supporters.

Ian Mason, of Bachport, said: "We think our campaign is going well and we want to get as much support as we can.

"We will inspect what they propose with this planning application and make our case to have it rejected. It's simply not needed and is an unwelcome development on our doorsteps."

Mr Mason revealed that he had been told by Hills managing director Peter Andrew that a planning application is due to be submitted to South Oxfordshire District Council early next year.

Monica Hayes, spokesperson for Hills, said: "Hills Quarry Products is organising to meet with parish councils in early November to outline our plans for a sand and gravel quarry.

"Later in November we will hold a public exhibition giving local residents the opportunity to find out about our proposals."

Dates for the meetings and exhibition are to be confirmed.

1,000mph world record team's Oxfordshire HQ

OXFORDSHIRE'S links with science and engineering are now even stronger as the team behind the 1,000 miles per hour world land speed record attempt moved their headquarters to Didcot yesterday.

Bloodhound SSC, a team building a supersonic car capable of travelling at speeds of 1,000mph, moved into the recently opened University Technology College (UTC) Oxfordshire.

The car itself is being constructed in Bristol but the head offices will be moved to the college from Kingston Upon Thames in London.

The project's director and former land speed record holder, Richard Noble OBE, said: "Oxfordshire is an ideal central location for this national endeavour.

"Even better, being at UTC Oxfordshire reinforces Bloodhound's primary objective: to inspire the next generation of scientists and engineers.

"On behalf of the Bloodhound team I would like to thank UTC Oxfordshire and its team for the speed in which decisions were made. It promises to be a very fine relationship."

UTC Oxfordshire will now act as the office for Mr Noble where he will direct the operation.

Testing of the jet engine and rocket propelled car is to take place in Cornwall early next year, and the team hope to break the current land speed record of 763mph next Summer.

Former Royal Air Force pilot Wing Commander Andy Green, who holds the current land speed record, will take the car to speeds of 800mph in 2016 and then hopes to take the car up to 1,000mph in 2017.

The setting for this historic world record attempt will be a 12-mile long track on the Hakskeen Pan in the Northern Cape, South Africa.

A team based in South Africa has hand-cleared more than 16,000 tonnes of stone over the last five years to prepare the track.

UTC Oxfordshire's principal Owain Johns, said: "This new partnership means that our students will be rubbing shoulders with the team behind one of the most high-profile and exciting science and engineering challenges of our time.

"The ethos of Bloodhound is to break new ground in science and engineering while also inspiring the next generation of scientists and engineers."

"We are looking forward to realising the educational benefits of this partnership for our students and for other young people in the community."

Boarding school's paedophile ex-teacher jailed for 19 years

A FORMER teacher at a prestigious Jewish boarding school near Wallingford was sentenced to 19 years in prison at Oxford Crown Court on Friday for sexually abusing schoolboys.

Trevor Bolton, 78, of Kestrel Way in Clacton-on-Sea, Essex, had denied all charges but was found guilty of 21 offences by a unanimous jury last Wednesday and of a further four offences last Thursday by a majority jury of 11 to 1.

He was convicted of a string of offences on eight boys aged 10 to 15 at now-closed Carmel College between 1968 and 1988.

One of Bolton's eight victims, Peter Gluckstein, 56, who now lives in North London, waived

• Trevor Bolton, 78

By Loughlan Campbell

his anonymity 'to get the word out'.

He said: "I feel quite overwhelmed by it all."

"I knew it would be a long sentence but the judge really threw the book at him. I don't feel triumphant about it, in fact I feel overwhelmingly sad for the little boys and for me as a little boy for the abuse he did."

Mr Gluckstein, who attended Carmel College between 1969 and 1976, added: "I used to lay awake at night worrying if it would ever go to trial but now it's done, and I speak for me and the other victims who I've been in contact with, when I say that we are all generally relieved."

While sentencing Judge Ian Pringle told Bolton he had forced his victims to 'relive their childhood nightmares'.

He added: "You acted as a father-type figure to these pupils in your care and you would say to some of them that you would be a second father to them. This was all part of your grueling technique which you played on your young victims and you began to nurture them, ultimately, for your own sexual gratification."

The sentencing followed a three-week trial, which saw his victims give evidence both in person and via video link from different countries.

Victims told the jury as a housemaster and french teacher Bolton invited young boys up to his flat at the school to watch TV and smoke before abusing them. One told the court they would play video games and there was an unlimited supply of chocolate.

The jury heard Bolton befriended one boy when he first arrived at the school because he had been homesick. Bolton comforted him, but that developed from cuddling to sexual contact.

Another victim, who cannot be named for legal reasons, spoke out last Thursday and said: "The trial process conjured a strange mixture of emotions, by turns grueling, frustrating, empowering and, at the end, redemptive but overwhelmingly sad.

"But I'm glad I went through it, glad someone else came forward to start the ball rolling, glad I heard about it and joined in, glad I stuck with it and glad I've been able to exorcise those demons after all these years."

New Abingdon restaurant to open

A NEW restaurant is opening in Abingdon town centre in January. firmed on Friday they are hoping to open in Abingdon in January.

Wildwood Kitchens is due to open in Bury Street's empty former New Look clothes shop and a neighbouring unit which was jointly used by Hallmark card shop and chocolatiers Thortons.

A planning application to convert 1 to 3 Bury Street from shops to a restaurant was granted by Vale of White Horse District Council in March.

A statement submitted with the application by consultants Southern Planning Practice said: "After a vacancy period of two years the opening of a restaurant at the Abbey Shopping Centre must be a welcome boost to the town centre. A use that attracts footfall and custom is in the interests of the health of the town centre."

University's £25m boost for new Oxford campus

A £25 MILLION grant to help fund a redevelopment of an Oxford University college research site and build housing for 230 students has been announced.

Keble College, in Oxford's Parks Road will get the capital grant between January 2017 and May 2018 from Hampshire-based HB Allen Charitable Trust.

It will go towards the college's £60m project to redevelop Keble's Acland site between Woodstock Road and Banbury Road, and is the largest single donation in the college's 145-year history.

The revamp will provide a 120-seat lecture theatre, seminar rooms, research space, exhibition space, café, a gym, as well as the college's Advanced Studies Centre.

Philanthropist Heather Allen founded the HB Allen Trust in 1987 and died in 2005.

Keble College is also funding the redevelopment through other philanthropic gifts from alumni, friends of the college, and a 40-year loan.

Peter Shone, an HB Allen trustee, said: "The trustees thought it appropriate to make a landmark grant that will stand as a fitting memorial to the philanthropy of Miss Allen."

Sir Jonathan Phillips, Keble College warden, said: "The Trust's commitment to the project will enable it to proceed to completion well in advance of the college's 150th anniversary in 2020."

The Acland site was formerly a private hospital and was bought by Keble in 2004, currently housing around 80 graduate students.

Building work is due to start in July 2016, with the building hoped to be ready for occupancy in October 2018.

Report into teenager's death at care home is challenged by family

A NEW report into the death of 18-year-old Connor Sparrowhawk published by the NHS and an Oxfordshire watchdog has

By Alex Ballinger

sented in the report clearly indicate that Southern Health had information available to them that they failed to act upon."

The report was by NHS England and a partnership of police, NHS Oxfordshire, Oxford Health NHS Foundation Trust, Oxford University Hospitals NHS Trust and Oxfordshire County Council, together called the Oxfordshire Safeguarding Adults Board.

At the inquest into Connor's death on October 16 a jury ruled neglect and serious failings in care by Southern Health contributed to his death.

The JusticeforLB campaign was launched after Connor's death, calling for the trust and staff to be held accountable.

LB is a reference to Laughing Boy, a nickname for the Headington teenager who went to Wheatley's John Watson School.

Director of Nursing at NHS England, Jan Fowler said: "While the report concludes that wider deficiencies did not have a direct or indirect connection to the particular failures of care that led to Connor's death, it also rightly highlights the clear need to bring about wider improvements in how the NHS supports people with a learning disability and/or autism."

The unit where Connor died was closed by the trust at the end of 2013 after a Care Quality Commission inspection.

Southern Health chief executive Katrina Percy, said: "Connor died in a place in which he should have been safe. I am very sorry for the failings which contributed to his death."

"Southern Health will consider this report's findings."

Air quality website

OXFORD: A new website has been launched giving real-time updates about air quality across Oxfordshire to residents.

The site, www.oxfordshire.air-quality.info, went live last week providing hourly updates about the level of harmful pollutants in the air.

The site has been developed by Oxford City Council and South Oxfordshire, Vale of White Horse, West Oxfordshire and Cherwell district councils.

It was funded by a £20,000 grant from the Government department for environment, food and rural affairs' air quality grant scheme, after a bid was submitted by South Oxfordshire District Council.

The Craft Village

There's a lot to see and buy in the main craft marquee where artists, designers and craftsmen from around the UK will be exhibiting and demonstrating their skills. Be tempted to buy for yourself, or purchase some exceptional Christmas presents for special people.

Craft demonstrations are always highlight of the show. It's a great opportunity to watch crafts in the making. There are a lot of working craftsmen scattered around the main craft marquee and in smaller individual demonstration marquees Artists, Blacksmiths, Chainsaw Carvers, Glass Blowers, Textiles and Pottery Throwing are just few of the demonstrations to be seen.

New this year is the Countryside Arena – this may be your last chance of the year to see majestic shire horses, magnificent birds of prey, an owl show and the popular children's favourites, the ferrets.

The final element of the show is the large gift marquee which plays host to a wide range of gifts, ladies fashion jewellery, tweed clothing & household goods. With Christmas just around the corner it's a great early shopping opportunity.

There's lots to see, lots to do, lots to buy and lots to eat at the new look Thame Craft Food & Gift Fair.

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

WHICH? report April 2014. Independent hearing aid providers come out on top

According to a WHICH? report carried out in March and April 2014 Independent hearing aid providers were rated as the most satisfactory compared to Boots, Amplifon, Specsavers and Hidden Hearing.

An independent hearing aid audiologist is able to prescribe hearing aids from all manufacturers and find the exact system to suit your needs and budget. However some of the high street hearing aid retailers are tied to specific manufacturers therefore giving a limited choice.

Buying a hearing aid system is not just about the cost of the aid itself, you are purchasing an on-going package and so other things to consider are:-

1. Who is going to fit my hearing aids, and will I subsequently see the same person?
2. What is the level of ongoing aftercare and support after your hearing aids have been fitted?
3. Is the aftercare and support included in the price of the hearing aid system?
4. What is the length of the manufacturers warranty?
5. Can you trial the hearing system?
6. What are the ongoing costs i.e. batteries and wax guards?

Beware, some companies offer free guides on hearing aids and follow these up with home visits. They are often lead generation companies who operate in a sales based way. They may sell your information on to other large hearing aid providers who will target you with mail and telephone calls to entice you to buy their hearing aid systems. The same can also be said for websites which appear to offer comparatively low priced hearing aids.

If you are thinking of purchasing a hearing system it is important to compare the cost with a like for like hearing aid system and what aftercare is included. If the aftercare is not included in the cost of the system then how much will it typically cost you over the life of your hearing aids.

It can take time to fit and adjust a hearing system correctly so that it is working to maximise your hearing. Without a professional, attentive fitting, and programming by an experienced audiologist and a reliable aftercare service in place it is possible that your hearing aids will end up in a drawer somewhere because they failed to give you the benefits that you expected.

The difference between a good and a bad hearing aid solution is not usually the aid itself, since most aids are made by a handful of manufacturers. It's more to do with the professional fit and service given by the provider. Hearing aids are only as good as the expertise of the dispensing audiologist.

Keith Donaghy is an independent hearing aid audiologist with over 28 years experience of prescribing hearing aid systems in the Oxfordshire area. A consultation with him is FREE and he will happily help and advise you which, if necessary, hearing system will suit your lifestyle and budget the best. All with no obligation, what have you got to lose?

I AM UNIQUE

WIDEX UNIQUE™
LIVE LIFE LARGE

NEW HORIZONS IN HEARING

With the WIDEX UNIQUE™ family, we don't claim to do anything different.

We just do it better.

We can do this because we have refined the entire process of digital sound processing to push the borders of performance.

The WIDEX UNIQUE™ hearing aid is loaded with all-new features, including improved A/D converters for incredibly wide input range, a sound classifier for intelligent listening and the Wind Noise Attenuation system that dramatically reduces wind noise, leading to an SNR improvement of 8.4 dB.

But the whole is greater than the sum of its parts, and UNIQUE takes precision and performance to a completely new level in the way it captures, purifies and processes sound.

COMMUNICATE AS ONE

Like everyone else, hearing aid users are exposed to constantly changing environments.

Responding quickly to these changes is vital. With WIDEX UNIQUE™ Sound Class Technology we have devised a completely new, precise processing system to give users significantly improved sound in every sound environment.

At the core of this is a new Universal listening program that includes a sophisticated classification system. It divides listening environments into nine distinct sound classes.

By searching for specific characteristics in the incoming sound, it is able to instantly assess the sound environment - providing the optimum sound output to suit each individual's unique sound situation and hearing loss.

UNIQUE controls all this input, ensuring everything works together, communicating as one, in perfect balance.

CAPTURE, PURIFY, PROCESS WITHOUT SACRIFICE

FROM THE EXTREME TO THE SUBLIME

WIDEX UNIQUE purifies all the sound it captures. Our powerful Soft Level Noise Reduction reduces bothersome soft noises to provide users with supreme sound quality in any environment, from the extreme to the sublime.

Wind noise is also reduced significantly with the Wind Noise Attenuation system - the industry's best wind noise reduction, which truly adapts to the conditions.

Whether enjoying the solitude of the great outdoors or focusing intensely on tiny details, users of UNIQUE can make the most of the entire soundscape, with pure, clean sound.

The classics that never were

HAVE you ever wished legendary author Jane Austen had published more than only six books? Well you're in for an absolute treat thanks to the team of actors bringing unwritten Austen stories to the stage in Austentatious: an improvised Jane Austen novel.

Following hot on the heels of a sell-out Edinburgh Fringe Festival run, the phenomenal and frantic improvised comedy took to the stage of The Beacon in Portway, Wantage on Sunday as part of the Wantage (not just) Betjeman Literary Festival.

The show offers the audience the opportunity to pitch Austen novels that never were as six-cast members act out an hour-long play in the style of Jane Austen's classics pulled at random from a hat.

Sunday's offering was titled The Beekeeper's Nephew and followed the improvised exploits of Timothy, the bumbling nephew of a wealthy beekeeper, and his womanising military brother Frank.

The unplanned mish-mash of events makes for a surreal offering and farcical characters make jokes that couldn't be bettered after hours of scripting.

The cast's attempts at stifling laughter only added to the extreme ridiculousness of the plot and characters, and the quick wittedness of the ceaselessly talented performers meant there was never a dull moment.

By Alex Ballinger

I cried with laughter for the duration and was delighted that somehow, after a climactic fight between the brothers culminating in an attack from a swarm of bees armed with tiny swords, the story drew to a satisfying conclusion.

The packed literary festival audience seemed to enjoy the show as much as I did and this will be a tough act to follow for anyone else in the festival's diary.

The real joy is that you could watch this show over and over and would never see the same play twice and I absolutely intend to see it again at the first opportunity.

My only criticism is that it ended.

The Wantage (not just) Betjeman Literary Festival continues around the town until November 1.

The festival continues this evening with Local Voices: a chance for writers to perform at the King Alfred's Head pub in Market Place from 7.30pm.

Me, My Selfie and I

AFTER starring in his own TV sitcom, Dan Clark's entertainment career has hit the stage.

And the comedian will be at the Cornerstone Arts Centre in Didcot tomorrow night, October 30, with his tour 'Me, My Selfie and I'.

Dan, 39, is best known for starring as Don Danbury in BBC Three sitcom, 'How Not to Live Your Life', from 2007 to 2011.

The comedian, who created and produced the show, admitted it was always his intention to be the centre of attention.

"My ego wouldn't allow me to write a show for someone else to star in," Dan jokingly told the Guardian.

"It was great fun."

"There's a certain amount of pressure though and if you wrote and star in it - there's no one else to blame if it doesn't go down well. However, if it does, you get all the glory."

"So in a way, it can be more fun to be part of an ensemble."

He since started a stand-up career that has lasted for four years, but this will be the comic's first visit to the Station Road venue.

Although the word 'selfie' might conjure cringe worthy images of self-obsession and memories of tourist attractions ruined by too many selfie sticks, Dan insisted the word 'selfie' is not a reference to the number of photos he takes of himself, or even the repertoire of jokes thrown about in the show.

By James Richings

Instead, it relates to the length of time he was single for.

"Selfie is, or was, a zeitgeist-y word when I first came up with the tour but it feels a bit overused now," Dan said.

"But a large part of the show was about me being single for 12 years, so it kind of suited it."

"There is only one joke about taking photos in the whole show and it's not even a selfie joke really."

On being asked about any role models he styles himself on, Dan added: "I never ever got advice from anyone and I know that sounds weird, but it's true. I've watched many documentaries and interviews with my heroes or icons over the years and I'm often inspired by things they say, or the story of their ascent."

"Yet no one liner has ever really stuck out."

The show is suitable for over 16s and starts at 8pm.

Tickets cost £12.50.

He Had Hairy Hands

A SMALL town is plagued by werewolf attacks that threaten to ruin tea time, and there's only one person you can call.

The detective and his sidekick are on the case to find the suspect and bring peace to the town.

Comedy-drama 'He Had Hairy Hands' is a detective werewolf mystery visiting Oxford's Old Fire Station next week. The unique show could only be the creation of Kill The Beast Theatre Company.

Actress Natasha Hodgson said: "We try not to swear in our shows, firstly because it's a bit easy and also so that families can come along without parents worrying, though we do advise that kids under 12 probably shouldn't be exposed to our horrible creations."

"Essentially, we love making shows that are just really fun to watch. Kids get that."

The theatre company is made up of actors and actresses David Cumming, Oliver Jones, Natasha Hodgson, Zoe Roberts and Clem Garrity, who all created it after meeting at Warwick University.

The friends decided to write and perform together after discovering they all had an interest in dark, surreal sitcoms such as, 'The League of Gentlemen,' and 'Nighty Night', and comedy from 'The Mighty Boosh'.

By James Richings

Their first show in 2012, 'The Boy Who Kicked Pigs', was a hit at that year's Edinburgh Fringe Festival.

And in 2014 their second show, 'He Had Hairy Hands', was born.

It won the 'Best Studio Production' nomination at the Manchester Theatre Awards and was chosen as a BBC top pick at the Edinburgh Fringe.

"If you like plot twisting, fast-paced character comedy, 'He Had Hairy Hands' is for you," Natasha said.

"We also make use of gorgeous projections, original music and genuinely amazing costumes (though they are starting to whiff a bit).

"It's the perfect night out for lovers of sketch comedy, noir cinema and anyone who has a soft spot for the B-horror movies of the 1970s."

The show is inspired by buddy-cop TV shows of the 1970s as well as folk-horror films like 'The Wicker Man' and 'Blood On Satan's Claw'.

"And Scooby Doo of course," Oliver added. "All important theatre is inspired by Scooby Doo."

The show starts at 7.30pm on Thursday, November 5, and tickets cost £12.

Like a cyber-James Bond, the computer was born to spy. The work of Alan Turing led to the birth of electronic espionage. In the following decades, computers transformed intelligence from the spy hunting of the Cold War years to the data-driven pursuit of terrorists and the corporate cyber-espionage of the 21st century.

SEAN HUGHES: MUMBO JUMBO

Multi award winning comedian Sean Hughes is back with a new show called Mumbo Jumbo. Throughout his life he has been battling to stay on the right side of sanity. This is because in middle age he has realised that the two sides of his brain are in constant conflict. There is common sense against mumbo jumbo and mumbo jumbo seems to have the upper hand. The show consists of stories including being serenaded at the break of dawn by Robert Smith, trekking mountain gorillas in Rwanda and coming to the conclusion that he will never have a proper conversation with his dear mum.

FILM OF THE WEEK

Halloween 2015 at the Box Office

The scariest 'holiday' of the year is upon us, and as per usual there's a selection of films trying to terrify us over the weekend in question. We've picked four, all of which prove that sometimes there's nothing more fun than a good fright.

CRIMSON PEAK ; dir. Guillermo del Toro; 15

Starring: Mia Wasikowska, Jessica Chastain, Tom Hiddleston

The most mature title in our selection of horrors comes from the man behind Pan's Labyrinth. Set in a spooky mansion that has a rather bloody past, we follow as an aspiring author gets caught somewhere between an old childhood friend and mysterious newcomer, slowly losing grip on reality as the walls close in. Unsettling to the last, this is by far del Toro's darkest movie to date, straddling the line between adult fantasy and nightmare. Highly recommended stuff, just don't expect to sleep that well afterwards.

HOWL ; dir. Paul Hyett; 18

Starring: Ed Speleers, Holly Weston, Elliot Cowan

Britons love complaining about public transport, but as Paul Hyett's werewolf flick shows, we don't know how good we've got it. On the train to fictitious Eastborough- presumably a London commuter town- there are the usual characters; ignorant youths, even ruder city slickers, pensioners and everyday Joes. Sadly, their destination winds up being a few miles from the final stop after the carriages career into something. You can probably guess what that is. At times laughable, but still packed with jumps.

PARANORMAL ACTIVITY- The Ghost Dimension ; dir. Gregory Plotkin

Starring: Chris J. Murray, Brit Shaw, Ivy George

Given how long the Paranormal

Activity franchise has been running, everyone knows what to expect- found footage. In this instance some people discover an old VHS tape (remember those?) in their home, and decide to give it a watch. Disturbingly, it shows children being put in a trance-like state, but even more worrying is when those kids begin responding to what the viewers are saying. Opening the portal between one realm and another, if you find little ones freaky as hell we wouldn't recommend.

THE DIABOLICAL ; dir. Alistair Legrand; 15

Starring: Ali Larter, Max Rose, Chloe Perrin

You have to wonder exactly what Ali Larter did wrong in another life. First the blonde bombshell had death pursuing her in Final Destination, now all she wants to do is raise her young 'uns well, but the house she's decided to do that in appears to be plagued by some kind of ominous spirit. Looking to her scientist boyfriend, Nikolai, what follows is a Poltergeist -esque hunt to work out exactly what's sharing the address with them, and what it wants. Needless to say, we've all been here before, but that's not really the point, is it?

• Guillermo del Toro's Crimson Peak

Renault pays homage to Le Corbusier

By James Richings

RENAULT'S designers have unveiled a concept car to make its mark on the world of art and architecture more than to fill company coffers.

The team has created a car to pay homage to one of the world's best-known architects for the 50th anniversary of Le Corbusier's death this year.

The Coupé Corbusier will be on show at the Villa Savoye in France until March next year.

The design team pledged simplicity, geometric elegance and mastery of light was the inspiration behind the project.

The project began two years ago when the teams decided to investigate the topic of 'French cultural objects'.

Their research soon led them back to the golden age of the car in the 1930s, and the influence of Le Corbusier.

The first design statement that draws attention to the one-off car is its sizeable and fierce yet stylish looking grille with metallic badging.

In fact metallic silver decoration and edging is used again and again to make a bold statement from the oversize wheel arch decoration to geometric wheel trim.

But as much as it is an homage to the past, and Le Corbusier, the first word that comes in mind to describe it is futuristic.

Groupe Renault has indeed branded it as "future-looking", to "explore new ways forward".

Which gives a sense on how much Le Corbusier's contribution is still relevant today.

Charles-Édouard Jeanneret, known as Le Corbusier, was an internationally influential French-Swiss architect and city planner.

He was inspired by the automobile and dubbed a pioneer of modern architecture who tried to design better living conditions for the residents of crowded cities.

Renault's concept is on display at Villa Savoye, a modernist villa on the outskirts of Paris, which was designed by Le Corbusier himself between 1929 and 1931.

France's Centre des Monuments

Nationaux, a government body that manages historic buildings and sites owned by the state, is putting on an exhibition at Villa Savoye called 'Cars for living: the automobile and modernism in the 20th and 21st centuries'.

The car was unveiled last Thursday and will be on display until March 20.

United star loan ends after Wolves recall

OXFORD United suffered a blow on Tuesday with the news that promising winger Jordan Graham had been recalled from his loan spell at Oxford United by parent club Wolverhampton Wanderers.

The winger had only agreed an extension to remain at the Kas-Sam Stadium until late December after he put in a series of promising performances.

Graham made six appearances for United since arriving in September and starred in the 2-0 win over Swindon Town in the Football League Trophy on October 6, in which he made his debut.

The 20-year-old was recalled by Wolves after the Championship club were hit by a series of injuries and the winger is expected to go straight into the squad to play Birmingham on Saturday.

Oxford United head coach, Michael Appleton, said: "It's a shame because he has done really well for us and was enjoying being part of the squad, but Wolves had a recall option in the loan and have a number of first team players out so it's a wonderful opportunity for him.

"We wish him well and will certainly keep an eye on his progress."

"We are fortunate to have a number of options in the wide positions and we will look at all of those in the next few days as we prepare for the trip to Stevenage on Saturday."

Graham scored no goals for United in his short spell at the club despite starring down the right flank alongside right back George Baldock and the loanee had come under big praise from his teammate earlier this season.

The right-back has said the winger had a 'big future', saying: "I think he can be as good as he wants to be if I'm honest.

"He is quite a lively character and he took us back a bit when he first arrived because he's got a lot of confidence."

Graham's departure leaves Oxford with Callum O'Dowda and Alex MacDonald as the preferred first-team flank options, though Kemar Roofe has previously been deployed down the flanks.

Oxford travel to Stevenage at the weekend before taking on Braintree Town in the first round of the FA Cup the following Saturday at Cressing Road. The furthest United have got in the competition is the Quarter-finals, which was back in 1964 when they lost 2-1 to Preston North End.

Millers beaten for first time

NORTH Leigh lost for the first time in the league this season in a 2-1 defeat to title rivals Cinderford Town as the Millers dropped to second in the league.

Michael Hopkins got the goal for the Millers in added time in the second half after Lorcan Sheehan and Ethan Moore had put the home side in front.

Leigh had a strong start to the game with Kieran Sanders and Aaron Woodley both going close.

The first-half saw no balls hit the back of the net but the Millers' Morgan Williams proved to be a nuisance to the Cinderford defence throughout the 45 minutes.

Two minutes into the second half, the Millers were behind after Sheehan scored from an optimistic shot from twelve yards with Leigh's James Foster unsighted.

Leigh then shot themselves in the foot as a back pass from Hopkins to Foster was pounced on by Cinderford substitute Moore who slotted the ball past the advancing 'keeper in what was yet another soft goal for Leigh to concede.

Hopkins managed to get Leigh's consolation deep into injury time, finding space in the area before hammering home a left footed shot into the top corner.

Palmer pens deal for Lotus' 2016 season

LAST year's GP2 champion Jolyon Palmer will partner Pastor Maldonado at the Lotus F1 team next season, it was announced last Friday.

Englishman Palmer has been the Enstone squad's third and reserve driver throughout 2015, driving in a number of first practice sessions during the year.

He replaces Romain Grosjean, who is leaving Lotus at the end of this season to join the new Haas F1 team.

"I'm obviously delighted that I'll be racing in Formula One next year," said Palmer.

"Lotus gave me a tremendous opportunity this season and I thank them for assisting my development to a level where they have put their trust in me for a crucial season in their evolution.

"I've enjoyed and learnt a lot from my year as third and reserve driver so I'm looking forward to putting this into practice as a race driver in 2016.

"I can't wait for next season to get underway."

Gerard Lopez, team principal of Lotus, added: "We've seen Jolyon's hard work and talent this season in the way he's approached his third driver role and he is a really popular choice for the team.

"He deserves this opportunity, and everyone at Enstone is excited to see what he can achieve next year."

U's feel the Barnet buzz in 3-2 goal-mouth feast

A FIRST-HALF thriller at the Kassam Stadium in which Barnet scored three goals in five minutes led to the U's first home defeat of the season.

A brace from star midfielder Liam Sercombe was undone by a flurry of goals in a sustained period in the first half by Barnet as John Akinde, Curtis Weston and Josh Clarke rampaged through the U's defence and slotted home.

Oxford went ahead after a corner wasn't cleared by Barnet and Sercombe stepped up to hammer it in from just inside the box.

A beautifully clipped in free-kick on 25 minutes led to Weston firing the ball home before Akinde fire home just three minutes later.

Clarke then added to the U's woes as he slipped through to slot home to put the Bees two goals up on 31 minutes.

Oxford's Jordan Graham couldn't keep his cool following a penalty shout for United turned down after Graham was tackled in the area and the winger took out Elliot Johnson gaining himself a yellow card.

Bira Dembele was then carded after he swung out an arm at Kemar Roofe to bring the playmaker down just a minute later with the game reaching a boiling point just over a half an hour into play.

Sercombe then managed to lift the home fans to their feet on 40 minutes after the midfielder rescued the ball from a challenge, charged into the area and fired home.

In a mad minute in the second half, Barnet nearly made it four through Michael Gash before Roofe was denied by a point-blank save from Stephens and a Balcock shot was claimed to have knocked a Barnet hand but the referee ruled out a penalty.

Larks defy Freds in 3-2 comeback win

WANTAGE Town suffered more misfortune as they threw away a two-goal lead to be beaten 3-2 by Larkhall Athletic on Saturday at Alfredian Park.

The match was played in wet conditions, with Wantage heading into the game, desperate for a league win, but were undone in the second half by the visitors.

After a poor first-half that saw neither side break the deadlock, Ben Whitehead scored his thirteenth league goal of the season after intercepting a Larks pass and he barreled the ball in from three yards out on 50 minutes.

Whitehead then added his second of the game from the penalty spot ten minutes later after Nick Thorne was brought down in the area.

The Larks continued to hit back at the Freds and keeper Daniel Smith had to be alive to a powerful shot from Jamie Lyons that was looming goal bound until Smith pushed it away.

Athletic managed to get a goal back with 72 minutes played as Lyons knocked the ball in before teammate James Billing equalised for the Larks with eight minutes remaining.

Three minutes later, Dan Cleverley rounded out the scoring; as he beat Smith to seal a comeback win for Athletic, confirming Daniel Barry's side to their ninth league defeat of the season.

Up next for Daniel Barry's men is a trip to Wimborne Town on Saturday before they follow that up with a tricky encounter at Bishop's Cleeve the following weekend.

The Freds are currently 17th in the Southern League Division One South & West table, taking 11 points.

Smith praises team after 'fantastic' Malaysia race

OXFORD'S Bradley Smith proclaimed his 4th place finish at the Moto GP Malaysian Grand Prix on Sunday as a 'fantastic result'.

The Monster Yamaha Tech3 Team rider rode determinedly to secure the result at round 17 of the Championship, starting from the third row but finishing the opening lap in 10th.

By lap 4, Smith had got himself into 7th position, and half way through the race the satellite rider was riding in 6th.

He managed to navigate his way past Crutchlow on the 11th lap, finishing ahead of his fellow Brit and Italy's Danilo Petrucci in the final standings.

Smith, 24, said after the race:

"Finishing this race in this position is a fantastic result after such a challenging weekend. We have something to celebrate and we can go home with a smile on our faces."

"Going from 14th at the end of day one to 4th today highlights the great effort by the team and I must thank them for this."

"It is amazing to get 13 points as we have now extended the points lead over Andrea Dovizioso for 6th place in the championship. So we definitely have something to celebrate and we can go home with a smile on our faces."

The final round of the MotoGP World Championship is set to take place in Valencia on November 8 where Smith will be aiming to seal his sixth place finish and cement what's been a thoroughly successful season for the young rider.

Chinnor hold on for first league win

CHINNOR RFC earned their first win of the season in a highly contested 15-11 victory over Canterbury.

The Oxfordshire side had previously failed to win their first seven games in the National League 2 South, only managing to scramble six bonus points from the encounters.

Chinnor got an early penalty which was converted by Will Millett and Junior Fatialofa nearly managed to get to the line before he was tackled just a few yards short of it.

A strong push from the back row managed to give the away side the impetus as Daz Oliver, on his birthday, got himself over the line for a try, which was then converted by Millett. The visitors managed to hold the 10-point lead before Canterbury converted a penalty from the restart and moving into the second half, the home side managed to win themselves another penalty to put the score at 10-6 to Chinnor.

However, a scintillating try from Fatialofa, which saw him weave his through the defence to secure an unconverted try was Chinnor's highlight of the second half.

The away side held on in the last 20 minutes despite Canterbury managing to score another unconverted try to reduce the deficit to 11-15.

Chinnor are 14th in the National League 2 South table.

Sport Bites

Ladies lose

HOCKEY: Kim Haynes scored for Oxford Hockey Club Ladies' 1st team in a 3-1 defeat to Division 2 league leaders, Wimbledon.

Meanwhile, the Men's 1st team were beaten 2-0 by top-of-the-table Eastcote, with the winners arguably winning against the run of play.

However, Oxford Ladies' 2nd team secured a 2-0 win over Bracknell's 1st team with Jill Gordon and Meg Scott getting the goals.

Non-league Round Up

FOOTBALL: Kidlington were beaten 2-1 by Ascot United at the Racecourse Ground to drop to fifth in the Hellenic League Premier.

Ardley United continued their slump in form in a 4-1 defeat to Longlevens AFC at the Sawmills End.

Whilst Thame United secured a 1-0 win over Milton United in an Oxfordshire derby at the ASM Stadium.

Star departs

ICE HOCKEY: Oxford City Stars confirmed the departure of Steve Osman on Tuesday.

Head Coach Simon Anderson said: "I am obviously disappointed that Steve has decided to leave the Stars. He told me he wasn't happy and was finding it hard to adapt to our style of play."

"I appreciate his professionalism in all of this and I wish him the best moving forward."

Can City go the distance?

ANALYSIS: With Oxford City's winger Luke Coulson on trial at National League side Crewe Alexandra, it seems that Justin Merritt's side are getting noticed more and more.

The Blues' National League South season has been one of many highs for the current side, who achieved their highest ever league position of second back in September, and have so far, managed to hold on to it.

Merritt's side are involved in a top-of-the-table tussle with Whitehawk and Maidstone United, over trying to clinch hold of second place with Ebbsfleet United cruising out in front, nine points clear of Oxford.

After losing Adi Yussuf to Mansfield Town in the summer, the goal scoring duties have fallen upon Bradley Bubb, who has risen to the challenge and has netted seven goals for City so far this season.

With Kynan Isaac, Julian Lafuente, Coulson and Omari Sterling-James in the squad, Oxford arguably have a real chance to truly cement a promotion challenge.

“Anything can happen in football”

Diddy manager sings squad's praises after historic win

DIDCOT Town's joint-manager, Ian Concannon has claimed that 'anything can happen' as his side got a televised home tie with League Two side Exeter City in the first round of the FA Cup.

Around 90 people headed down to the Loop Meadow club-house, off Bowmont Water, on Monday night for the televised draw after the Diddy prevailed over Brentwood Town FC in an enthralling 4-2 win at the Loop Meadow on Saturday.

The result saw the Diddy enter the draw as the lowest-ranked team in the competition, but it nearly didn't happen as they fell two goals down early on in the game after Brentwood's Craig Reid and Jamie Guy slotted the visitors in front.

However, Mark Janes soon found the net for Didcot before Jack Longford equalised for the hosts.

The visitors were then down to ten men after Josh Banton's headbutt on Jack Powell and the Railwaymen capitalised on the error with Jack Dutton-Black and Powell finishing to send the fans into raptures.

90 minutes of football."

Concannon was also full of high praise for young winger Powell who, in his breakthrough season for the club, has got five goals for the club.

The joint-manager said of the 17-year-old: "He's a very old fashioned winger and is adapting well to the men's game. We want to use him wisely and play him at the right times.

"He's got a big future ahead of him."

The Diddy were smartly beaten 2-1 by Banbury United in a league encounter on Tuesday night in North Oxfordshire with Jack Longford scoring Didcot's goal through a penalty.

Up next for Didcot is a return to cup competitions in the first round of qualifying for the FA Trophy with the Diddy travelling to Molesley for the encounter.

Whilst Didcot Town continue to carve themselves into history in their run in the cup competitions, their league form in the Southern League Division One South & West has suffered, with the squad lying sixteenth in the table, on 15 points.

Concannon said: "When the ball came out and we realised we had Exeter, we were absolutely delighted. It just couldn't get any better for us."

The tie is set to be televised next Sunday at Midday on BT Sport and is expected to net the club £67,500.

"It's huge for the club as we've never been in this situation before. To be able to get this far is testament to the players, who've been unbelievable."

"The cup has a few upsets and who says we can't pull a surprise? Anything can happen in
